

Minimum Content Standup Paddleboard Customer Briefing

Content may be delivered orally, by video, or by using written notice, signs and posters. Outfitters may include specific elements in one media and use signage or posters for other aspects of the orientation.

Basic equipment explanation (board, paddle, appropriate leash: quick release or Velcro, calf, waist on ankle attachment)

How to use the board (paddling, getting back on it)

PFD Wear

Basic description of waterway possible flows changes (if applicable)

Weather wear as may be appropriate

Any hazards of note such as low head dams or obstructions (such as bridge piers)

Trespass issues (if applicable)

What to do in case of emergency

Maneuvering around fishermen (if applicable)

Care of personal items, keys

Clearing public boat ramps expeditiously (if applicable)

Lake paddling

Paddling around powercraft

River paddling with current

Appropriate rules of the road such as barges and power boats

Swimming in moving water

Recognizing and avoiding strainers

Foot entrapment
(if applicable on some streams)

Minimum Content Canoe and Kayak Customer Briefing

Content may be delivered orally, by video, or by using written notice, signs and posters. Outfitters may include specific elements in one media and use signage or posters for other aspects of the orientation.

Basic equipment explanation (craft, paddle)

How to use the craft (paddling, entry, exit and operation)

PFD Wear

Basic description of waterway possible flows changes (if applicable) and takeout location

Wear for weather as may be appropriate

Any hazards of note such as low head dams or obstructions (such as bridge piers)

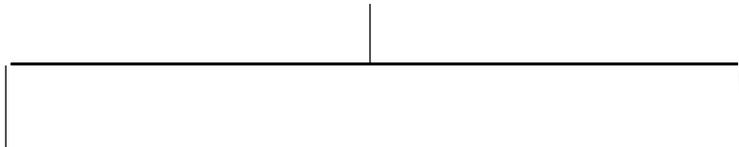

Trespass issues (if applicable)

What to do in case of emergency

Maneuvering around fishermen (if applicable)

Care of personal items, keys

Clearing public boat ramps expeditiously (if applicable)

Lake paddling

Paddling around powercraft
(if applicable)

River paddling with current

Swimming in moving water
Recognizing and avoiding strainers
Paddling around powercraft (if applicable)
Foot entrapment
(if applicable on some streams)

Minimum Content Tubing Customer Briefing

Content may be delivered orally, by video, or by using written notice, signs and posters. Outfitters may include specific elements in one media and use signage or posters for other aspects of the orientation.

Proper use of tube

PFD Wear

Basic description of waterway possible flows changes (if applicable) and takeout location

Wear for weather as may be appropriate

Any hazards of note such as low head dams or obstructions (such as bridge piers)

Trespass issues (if applicable)

What to do in case of emergency

Maneuvering around fishermen (if applicable)

Care of personal items, keys

Clearing boat ramps expeditiously (if applicable)

|

Minimum Content Raft Rental Customer Briefing

Content may be delivered orally, by video, or by using written notice, signs and posters. Outfitters may include specific elements in one media and use signage or posters for other aspects of the orientation.

Basic equipment explanation (craft, paddle)

How to use the craft (paddling, entry, exit and operation)

PFD Wear

Basic description of waterway possible flows changes (if applicable) and takeout location

Wear for weather as may be appropriate

Any hazards of note such as low head dams or obstructions (such as bridge piers)

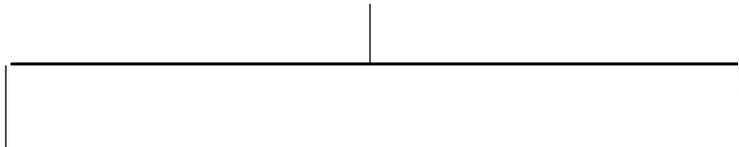

Trespass issues (if applicable)

What to do in case of emergency

Maneuvering around fishermen (if applicable)

Care of personal items, keys

Clearing public boat ramps expeditiously (if applicable)

Lake paddling

Paddling around powercraft
(if applicable)

River paddling with current

Swimming in moving water
Recognizing and avoiding strainers
Paddling around powercraft (if applicable)
Foot entrapment
(if applicable on some streams)